Who are we?

We are midwives, student midwives and others in the UK committed to improving the maternity care provided by the NHS. We strongly believe that all women have the right to a service tailored more closely to their needs, and a sympathetic attitude on the part of their professional attendants. [\[Read More\]](#)

Join us at our National Meetings

National meetings are held four times a year in the north, south, east and west of the country. The next meeting will be in Oxford in December. Watch this space for more details
