

Search bar with a magnifying glass icon.

- About the ILO
- Topics
- Regions
- Meetings and events
- Publications
- Research
- Labour standards
- Statistics and databases

ILO home > Publications

Publications

- Books and reports
- Meeting documents
- Working papers
- Magazines and journals

Order locally

Countries where you can order locally

Countries where a discount is applicable

Discounts for institutions, government and special bulk sales

Just released

Domestic Workers Across the World: Global and regional statistics and the extent of legal protection
09 January 2013

This publication sheds light on the magnitude of domestic work, a sector often "invisible" behind the doors of private households and unprotected by national legislation.

Global Employment Trends for Women 2012
15 December 2012

Part of the Global Employment Trends series, this publication delivers the most current information on emerging trends and key challenges facing women in labour markets around the world.

Global Wage Report 2012/13: Wages and Equitable Growth
07 December 2012

The Global Wage Report 2012/13 looks at differences in wages around the globe and how they have been influenced by the economic crisis. It includes global and regional wage trends and statistics, as well as policy recommendations.

List all »

Forthcoming

Global Employment Trends 2013
29 January 2013

The annual Global Employment Trends (GET) reports provide the latest global and regional estimates of employment and unemployment, employment by sector, vulnerable employment, labour productivity and working poverty, while also analysing country-level issues and trends in the labour market.

Globalizing Social Rights: The International Labour Organization and beyond
12 February 2013

This collection brings together a variety of new scholarship by a group of highly qualified and internationally renowned scholars in the field of global history and the history of international organizations.

Righting the Balance: Putting social justice first

18 February 2013

"Women and men without jobs or livelihoods really don't care if their economies grow at 3, 5 or 10 per cent a year, if such growth leaves them behind and without protection. They do care whether their leaders and their societies promote policies to provide jobs and justice, bread and dignity, and freedom to voice their needs, their hopes and their dreams..." - Juan Somavia

List all »

Flagship reports

Global Wage Report 2012/13: Wages and Equitable Growth
December 2012

The report looks at differences in wages around the globe and how they have been influenced by the economic crisis, giving a unique picture of wage trends and relative purchasing power across the world and by region and providing policy recommendations.

World of Work Report 2012: Better Jobs for a Better Economy
May 2012

Published annually by the International Institute for Labour Studies - the research arm of the ILO - the report presents a timely, in-depth discussion of work issues in a non-technical manner, based on new data and economic analysis and with full technical annexes.

Global Employment Trends 2012
January 2012

The annual Global Employment Trends (GET) reports provide the latest global and regional estimates of employment and unemployment, employment by sector, vulnerable employment, labour productivity and working poverty, while also analysing country-level issues and trends in the labour market.

Social Protection Floor for a Fair and Inclusive Globalization
October 2011

Report of the Social Protection Floor Advisory Group chaired by Michelle Bachelet. In many ways the power of the social protection floor lies in its simplicity. The floor is based on the idea that everyone should enjoy at least basic income security sufficient to live ...

Key resources

Key indicators of the labour market (KILM) Seventh edition (includes CD-ROM)
October 2011

This valuable wide-ranging reference tool meets the ever-increasing demand for timely, accurate and accessible information on the rapidly changing world of work. The KILM offers the general user with instant and uncomplicated access to data and analysis on the world's labour markets.

Regulating for Decent Work New directions in labour market regulation
June 2011

First in the series Advances in Labour Studies, this book is an international and interdisciplinary response to the neoliberal ideologies that have shaped labour market regulation in recent decades. It draws on contributions by leading experts across a range of disciplines, including economics, law, political science and industrial relations.

Contact us

pubvente@ilo.org

LABORDOC

Labordoc contains references to a wide range of print and electronic publications, including journal articles, from countries around the world, on all aspects of work and sustainable livelihoods, and the work-related aspects of economic and social developments and human rights. Labordoc provides an ever increasing number of links to online publications available on the internet.

Information centers and depository libraries

A Global Information Network to disseminate and provide access to ILO knowledge.

See also

ILO Library

Catalogues

Catalogue ILO Publications - Fall 2012
September 2012
Catalogue: English titles (update)

Catalogue ILO Publications 2012 (Trilingual)
February 2012
Catalogue: English, French and Spanish titles

Catalogue ILO Foreign Rights Catalogue 2012
September 2012